

Mercer Island World Language Learning Targets

AP French

The following are text books and other resource materials used to teach AP French Language. A teacher may use all or just a selection of the following texts.

Texts: Une Fois Pour Toutes

Copyright 1992 by Longman Publishing Group.

AP French: Preparing for the Language Examination

Copyright 1998 by Addison Wesley Longman.

Trésor du temps

Copyright 1997 by The Glencoe Division of McGraw-Hill School Publishing.

Bon Voyage, Glencoe French 3

Copyright 2005 by The McGraw-Hill Companies.

Reprise

Copyright 1993 by Digital Wisdom, Inc.

Themes:

Teachers will not address all these themes but choose from the following list.

- French History: 50 AD to present
- Advanced French grammar
- Wide variety of vocabulary dealing with the different themes
- French literature:
  - Short stories, (selections: Guy de Maupassant)
  - Novel: L'Etranger Albert Camus
- French Art History
- Francophone films

Skills:

- Express themselves coherently, resourcefully, and with reasonable accuracy and fluency in both written and spoken French
- Write essays which analyze different genres including literature, art, film, history, etc
- Understand spoken French in various contexts
- Use and understand idiomatic expressions
- Be able to complete exercises reflective of the skills needed to take the AP French Language exam

Grammar:

Students who enroll in AP French Language should already have a good command of French grammar and have competence in listening, reading, writing and speaking.

- All articles
- Verbs in the following tenses and moods: présent, imparfait, passé composé, subjonctif, passé du subjonctif, future simple, future proche, futur antérieur, conditionnel, conditionnel passé, plus-que-parfait, passé simple, impératif
- Pronouns and relative pronouns
- Interrogatives
- Negations
- Comparative and superlative
- Prepositions
- Conjunctions
- Demonstrative adjectives and pronouns