A community-based group recently made recommendations to the MISD School Board about addressing the facility needs based on current and projected enrollment.

Now is the time to learn about the issues!

Quick Questions and Answers:

Did Mercer Island just vote for a bond?

The last bond that was passed for school facility improvements was 17 years ago. The current school buildings were constructed in the 1950's and remodeled in the 1990's.

Will the community be involved?

The board is starting a public process to be able to make informed decisions on what is in the best interest of our community and our schools.
