

Class Size Study Group
March 13, 2007

TAKE AWAY POINTS

- We looked at numbers comparing high school and middle school class sizes – we need further clarification
- High school and middle school class sizes are about the same at Mercer Island High School and Islander Middle School
- We have reviewed class size numbers, but we haven't evaluated whether those numbers are acceptable or not
- Based on the research, we discussed possible explanations for extremely low and extremely high class sizes as noted in the data
- Clarified key points in the research that we read
